"Amsterdam" begins with the death of a prominent Dutch politician, and the story revolves around the funeral of this figure. The novel follows two childhood friends, Clive Linley, a composer, and Vernon Halliday, the editor of a newspaper. Their friendship is tested as they navigate personal ambitions, moral choices, and political pressures. When Vernon learns that his former lover, Molly Lane, has committed suicide, he is overwhelmed with grief and guilt, which leads to a pivotal decision involving Clive.

The crux of the story involves a morally ambiguous choice: Vernon and Clive consider euthanizing a terminally ill friend, ensuring that their actions remain secret. This decision sparks intense debates about ethics, loyalty, and the nature of friendship, culminating in a series of dramatic and thought-provoking events.
